Product information

Suitability ♀/♂: Women's

Sergio Grasso’s new line for endurance sports is designed to embody and demonstrate a respect for nature: Endurance combines technology, comfort, and Italian design in a shoe featuring a slip-resistant Vibram sole, a 100% waterproof, breathable upper, an anatomical Ortholite footbed to prevent foot fatigue and neutralize odors, quick-lace system, and an elastic strap. The inner lining is made of Sympatex, a fully recyclable, absorbent material capable of wicking moisture away from the inside and enhancing comfort. The new Endurance line is the conscious choice for anyone who loves and lives nature to the fullest.

- Toe cap: 100% waterproof, breathable. Reflective strip on the toe cap for night visibility.
- Inner Lining: Sympatex 100% recyclable—breathable and moisture-absorbing lining.
- Closure: Front.
- Sock: Waterproof sock to prevent dirt or sand from getting in.
- Sole: Non-slip Vibram rubber sole for maximum traction and grip.
- Insole: Ortholite—shock-absorbing, breathable, antibacterial, and helps prevent foot fatigue thanks to its cushioning system.
