Veredus TRB offers the perfect blend of comfort, protection, and practicality for everyday use.

These anatomically shaped gaiters are manufactured entirely in Italy; they feature a Techno Sheepskin lining for enhanced comfort and a sophisticated look, as well as a two-layer core consisting of a shock-absorbing EVA membrane and a shell made of a special, highly durable polymer.

Product information

The elastic straps with a 50 mm wide Velcro closure ensure a perfect fit and the best possible hold when worn.

The TRB gaiters are ideal for any situation—from daily training to dressage, from trail rides to stable work (lunging, horse walker, paddock)—they were designed for versatile, comfortable, and long-lasting use while maintaining Veredus's signature style and quality.
