Stirrup straps from Prestige Italia combine functional safety with a clean, elegant look. The saddle girth with stud protection is made of smooth leather and designed for reliable use in equestrian sports. The black version blends discreetly with various tack sets and contributes to a uniform, professional appearance.

The elastic straps on both sides provide a balanced level of flexibility that harmoniously complements the rider’s seat on the horse. Rings for auxiliary reins and a central snap hook for the girth expand the saddle’s versatility and ensure practical functionality. The integrated stud guard also provides enhanced protection in the abdominal area.
