Vestrum Bellatrix High-Waisted Riding Pants, Full Grip, are functional riding pants with a high waist, designed for comfort, freedom of movement, and a clean, modern look. The technical, soft-fitting material ensures a precise fit and delivers reliable performance during both training and competitions. The breathable and stretchy fabric provides a comfortable feel tailored to a variety of body types.

The Vollgrip feature provides additional grip in the saddle and adds a practical element to the sporty, elegant design. A front button closure accentuates the clean lines, while the subtle logo detail on the left leg adds a signature brand touch. The result is a pair of riding breeches that combines function and style in a minimalist, professional design.
