The Vestrum Molveno Women's Riding Breeches in Amaranth combine a high-waisted fit with functional equestrian design and a clean, sporty look. The full-seat grip ensures a secure hold in the saddle, while the bi-elastic material offers freedom of movement and comfort for everyday use. The subtle branding with the Vestrum logo on the side and back underscores the high-quality character of these women’s riding breeches.

The design is engineered for a balanced combination of stability and comfort.
