The Hunter X Eskadron Vario Dog Coat in Black is a versatile winter coat for dogs, designed for changeable weather conditions and demanding activities during the cooler months. As a 2-in-1 solution, this model combines weather-resistant functionality with a clean, minimalist design. The water- and wind-repellent outer material provides reliable protection against cold, very cold temperatures, and rain, while the detachable fleece lining allows for adjustable warmth.

The design is engineered for a secure fit and practical everyday use. A width-adjustable collar with elastic, a continuously adjustable belly strap with a snap closure, and elastic, length-adjustable loops for the hind legs ensure a precise fit for different body shapes. The closed belly panel further increases the area of protection. A practical opening with an adjustable, waterproof two-way zipper is provided for use with a harness. Reflective piping improves visibility at dusk and in low-light conditions.
