Color: anthracite

The Hunter x Eskadron Motion Reflect Dog Harness in Anthracite combines thoughtful functionality with a clean, modern look. The dog harness is just as suitable for everyday use as it is for active walks and offers an ergonomic fit that effectively supports freedom of movement and a secure fit. The reflective design increases visibility in low-light conditions and adds a practical safety feature to the model.

The design is built for adaptability: thanks to multiple adjustment options, the harness can be tailored to different body shapes. Soft mesh padding ensures a comfortable fit and helps distribute pressure evenly. Two D-rings on the back and chest allow for variable leash attachment and make the harness versatile.

- Ergonomic fit for a secure fit and freedom of movement
- 5-way adjustable for a custom fit
- Soft, breathable mesh padding
- Reflective material for better visibility
- Two D-rings for attaching leashes on the back and chest
- Weather-resistant and durable
- Easy to care for and suitable for everyday use

The anthracite dog harness features a subtle color scheme that pairs well with a variety of outfits. The combination of comfort, stability, and visibility makes this model a well-thought-out choice for discerning dog owners who value quality and functional design.
