Product information

The Hunter X Eskadron Craft Dog Collar in Cognac combines a minimalist design with high-quality craftsmanship and practical functionality. The cognac-colored dog collar is designed as an elegant accessory for everyday use and active pursuits. The distinctive leather look, clean lines, and meticulous details give this model a calm, characterful appearance.

The durable cowhide leather, produced using gentle manufacturing methods, ensures a pleasant feel and long-lasting quality. Thanks to its wide contact surface, the collar fits comfortably around the neck and helps distribute pressure evenly. Contrasting decorative stitching adds a subtle accent without overwhelming the simple design.

Careful manufacturing in Germany and meticulous handcrafting result in a high-quality dog collar that combines functionality with a stylish look. The heavy oiling also makes this model particularly suitable for dog sports and demanding everyday conditions.
