Harry's Horse EquiThight Winter Riding Leggings, navy, are functional winter riding leggings for chilly days in the stable and in the saddle. This style combines a comfortably stretchy fabric with a form-fitting cut, promoting freedom of movement and a comfortable fit for everyday riding. The dark navy color offers a classic look that pairs well with a variety of outfits, while contrasting side piping adds a sporty touch to the design.

As winter riding leggings, this style is designed to meet the demands of the cold season. The elastic pull-up design requires no fasteners and makes them easy to put on. The circular-seamed seat with a silicone coating provides a secure grip in the saddle, while the Flex Legs are designed for flexible adjustment around the legs. This makes the riding leggings suitable for daily use as well as for longer training sessions.
