Product information

Clothing Sizes: 42

Pikeur ARIELL GRIP riding breeches are women’s full-seat breeches in the Grip style, combining functional features with a striking, modern design. The asphalt color underscores the sporty-elegant character and offers versatile styling options. The mid-rise waist creates a balanced fit designed for comfort during equestrian activities. The summer-oriented design gives the model a lightweight, seasonally appropriate look.

The riding breeches feature carefully crafted lines and intricate details. Rounded pockets, a decorative zipper pocket appliqué, and the PIKEUR embroidered logo add visual interest without overwhelming the clean overall look. On the back of the pants, a striped insert and a rhinestone transfer in a camouflage pattern add a unique, trend-conscious touch. The stretch leg cuffs on the inside ensure a comfortable fit around the legs.
