The Eskadron FAUXFUR Heritage 26/27 Trail Riding Blanket combines functional features with a polished, sporty-elegant look for use on trail rides and on the way to training. The robust 1680-denier outer fabric ensures durability, while the faux fur lining provides comfortable wear. As a trail blanket designed for demanding conditions, this model offers a well-thought-out combination of protection, breathability, and a precise fit.

The Heritage version in green blends harmoniously with the distinctive Eskadron design and features a high-quality look with clean lines. The saddle cutout ensures a secure fit around the saddle area, while the soft neoprene withers pad with a Velcro fastener is designed for additional support and a comfortable, pressure-relieving fit. The integrated tail strap complements the design and helps ensure a secure fit.
