Season: Winter

A riding glove with a “wow” factor!

The JULIA model from glove specialist Roeckl Sports delights the senses while impressing with its well-thought-out functionality.

With a chic, elegant, and stylish design, this slim-fitting women’s model fits like a second skin.

The proven ROECK-GRIP®—laminated with a warming fleece for winter use—offers maximum grip and tactile sensitivity on the reins.

But that’s not all: it’s pleasantly soft and supple for unmatched comfort!

The elastic, diamond-patterned back of the hand, made from windproof and highly breathable ROECK-PROOF, moves with you every step of the way.

Thanks to the exclusive COMFORT-CUT, no additional trim is needed on the index finger—for a sleek silhouette and an optimal fit.
Last but not least, contrasting piping and a glitter-effect logo add stylish accents—as does the elegant clasp featuring a silver or gold hand motif.

Contains no leather.
