Attention, #NoGlitterNoCompetition team! With its feminine and trendy design, the LORRAINE delights female riders with a penchant for that special something. A subtly glittering logo and ribbon on the back of the hand make the glove sparkle and add a touch of elegance to this functional riding glove, tailored for women’s hands. Silky-soft nylon with a high elastane content on the back of the hand ensures first-class comfort, a secure fit, and plenty of freedom of movement for the fingers. It’s also pleasantly breathable and dries quickly. A soft, thin PU material is used on the palm. It provides a secure and reliable grip on the reins without sacrificing the necessary sensitivity in contact with the horse’s mouth. Practical: Thanks to its slip-on design without fasteners, the LORRAINE can be put on quickly and comfortably. What’s more, this stylish, eye-catching glove can be machine-washed at 30 degrees without any problems. ROECKL recommends washing riding gloves like the LORRAINE regularly so they retain their functionality and provide long-lasting enjoyment while riding. Back of the hand: Matte nylon Palm: Soft PU
