Frankincense for Horses – Natural Support for Everyday Life

Our frankincense for horses is a high-quality dietary supplement made from Boswellia serrata—also known as Indian frankincense. The plant compounds it contains are traditionally valued as part of a balanced diet and can help support overall well-being—especially in older or heavily worked horses.

Features at a Glance:

- Natural supplement to the daily ration

Product information

- Especially popular with sport horses and senior horses
- Contains valuable phytochemicals
- Free of artificial additives, sugar, and grains

Our frankincense comes from a controlled source and is gently processed to best preserve its natural components. Whether as part of daily care, to support the horse during periods of increased stress, or as part of a balanced diet—frankincense can be a valuable supplement.

Frankincense for Horses—natural feeding, mindful supplementation.
