Our "Light" bitless bridle offers a gentle and effective way to communicate with your horse without a bit. Made of oiled leather, the bridle is particularly supple. Its optimal fit and soft padding ensure maximum comfort.
Ideal for training sessions aimed at refining body language, for riders who are not yet independent of their hands, and for horses that are sensitive to bits or refuse to accept them. The bitless bridle is easy to put on and offers a safe, comfortable alternative for both horse and rider.

- Bitless with side rings
- Oiled leather
- Softly padded noseband and anatomical headpiece
- Gentle and more even pressure distribution
- Curved headband with rhinestones
- Without reins
