Focus on your performance without compromising on style or safety. Ultra-lightweight and suitable for every rider, even beginners. The Kooki Lady is the perfect blend of design, safety, and comfort. This riding helmet goes with any outfit, which—combined with its light weight and comfort—makes it ideal for competitions and training.
Thanks to its versatility, the exquisite Kooki Lady complements any outfit and offers the perfect blend of style, safety, and comfort. We designed this unique helmet with a universal design to meet the needs of all riders and disciplines. It features a dual-shell structure: a robust inner shell made of EPS and thermoformed PC, combined with a durable outer shell made of injection-molded ABS. The inner lining, made of hydrophilic fabric, is breathable and antibacterial and features an integrated fit system. The vents at the front and back ensure quick drying, guaranteeing unparalleled comfort.

- Integrated airflow control
- Click-in system for inner padding
- Chin strap made of synthetic leather
- Extra sun protection
