Our ankle boots are made of super-soft tanned cowhide leather that molds perfectly to the foot. Kavalkade uses soft leather to ensure optimal comfort, even when worn for long periods. The leather has a slightly rustic look. The specially designed lasts offer maximum comfort. They feature a narrow cut and a relatively deep instep, ensuring that even narrow feet have a secure fit in the ankle boots. The high-quality insole ensures optimal pressure distribution across the footbed and is also breathable for a comfortable fit. The shoe’s sturdy, non-slip rubber sole is very flexible, allowing for an anatomical roll-off motion and is therefore gentle on the joints. The zipper has a brass-like finish and features relatively coarse teeth for greater durability.
The Lucius ankle boot features a front zipper and elastic inserts on both sides. Thanks to its simple design, the Lucius is ideal for wearing with chaps, offering a simple yet elegant look.
