The Amigo Lead-Ride Blanket keeps key muscle groups warm without restricting the shoulder. It is ideal for working in hand, in the horse walker, or for lunging. The curved cut takes pressure off the shoulder and allows for full range of motion, making the blanket ideal for any riderless training in cold weather.

With its waterproof, breathable outer material made of 900D ripstop polyester and 100-gram fiber filling, the blanket protects against the elements and keeps the horse comfortably dry. The glossy lining keeps the coat healthy and prevents chafing from the blanket.

A single straight chest closure, two adjustable cross-surcingles, and a tail strap keep the blanket securely in place during movement and in windy conditions.
