Product information

Relax Aromaspray – Soothing Swiss Stone Pine Spray for a Relaxing Atmosphere The Relax Aromaspray was developed to create a calming and stress-free environment through the power of essential oils. It’s ideal as a stable spray or bedding spray to mist the horse’s comfort zone before situations that are likely to cause nervousness. Carefully selected ingredients, such as Swiss stone pine oil and lavender oil, help reduce stress and anxiety, promote relaxation, and enhance overall well-being. For a well-rounded scent experience, the aromatherapy spray also contains rosemary oil, mountain pine oil, and mint oil, which complement the spray with their versatile effects. The product is ADMR-compliant and can therefore be used without a withdrawal period.

- With Swiss stone pine oil for a calming and air-purifying effect
- Lavender oil promotes relaxation and creates a stress-free atmosphere
- Peppermint oil opens the airways and has a cooling, relaxing effect
- Rosemary oil enhances concentration and promotes mental clarity
- Mountain pine oil soothes and invigorates at the same time
