The Marlous riding breeches are sporty riding breeches with a full-grip seat. These riding breeches are made of softshell and lined with fleece. This makes the Marlous riding breeches wonderfully warm and protects you from cold winter days. The riding pants feature a zippered pocket on the front and a side pocket on each leg. You can easily slip your phone into these pockets. The waistband is emblazoned with the words “Equestrian Sports,” which also helps keep the pants in place. The “Equestrian Sports” lettering also appears on the left leg, completing the look of these sporty riding pants.
