Style-conscious riders looking for a warm, comfortable, and elegant riding glove with a classic, sophisticated design will love the WELS. The first thing that catches the eye is its elegantly designed upper made of SUPREMA by ROECKL—an exclusive, supple, and breathable synthetic leather that is virtually indistinguishable from nappa leather—as well as the cuff with its stylish quilted look. ROECK-GRIP®, ROECKL's proven material that is pleasantly soft, elastic, and breathable, has been incorporated into the palm for maximum grip and absolute tactile sensitivity on the reins. As a result, the WELS fits like a glove. And when temperatures drop further and winter sets in at the stable, the precise, snug fit and the warm lining protect your hands from getting cold. Extra comfort is provided by ROECKL's exclusive COMFORT-CUT—a clever design that eliminates the need for additional trim on the index finger. Bottom line: The WELS is a stylish riding glove that moves with you, keeps the cold out, and retains warmth. And since
