Product information

Color: black

The narrow, curved "Blaze" headband features large and small rhinestones in black, gray, and white. What makes it special: The headband has an elastic loop on each side, allowing it to be used with both narrow and wide neck straps, such as those found on double bridles. Additionally, the elastic material lies flatter against the horse’s head, resulting in less pressure on the sides of the head.

- Narrow, curved “Blaze” browband with elastic loops
- Elastic loop for a secure fit, regardless of the width of the headpiece
- Suitable for snaffles and double-bit bridles
- The elastic material ensures a flatter fit, reducing pressure on the sides of the head
- Small and large rhinestones
