The "ELITE AIR YOUNG fetlock" are luxury fetlock bootsThey were developed to ensure a new level of excellence and state-of-the-art protection for young horses in show jumping. They also comply with international show jumping rules for the “young horse” category.
Designed to offer the perfect combination of maximum protection, lightness, and comfort, they represent the best technology currently available on the market. The outer structure features a new, special insert made of FLEX-CARBON fiber (patent pending), which maximizes the protective capacity of the fetlock boots without limiting their flexibility and adaptability to the horse’s leg, thereby achieving new levels of performance.
The padding, consisting of an outer layer of 3D Air-Mesh, an inner layer of perforated neoprene, and the tested Gel-Tech for the
