A wonderful cooling blanket made of fine, high-quality fleece, now featuring D-rings for attaching a neck piece. The blanket is very popular and features a stylish champagne-colored logo. This exceptionally breathable blanket is made of polyester fleece and has a polypropylene lining with fused ceramic particles. The Supreme fleece blanket is ideal for use before and after training or during transport. Because it is breathable, it’s perfect for keeping the horse warm on cold days, especially after work. Even on warmer days, the blanket can be used for warming up or cooling down. It features removable cross surcingles, a tail flap, and a tail strap.
