ES-Lucia Competition Jacket – Elegant, Breathable, and Functional

Step into the arena with unwavering elegance and outstanding performance in the ES-Lucia Competition Jacket. This stunning jacket was designed specifically for discerning female riders who demand flawless functionality and unparalleled style. It features feminine, tailored lines that gracefully accentuate your posture. Crafted from innovative, breathable fabrics, it ensures exceptional comfort throughout the entire competition thanks to its air circulation system in the back. Exclusive details, such as the refined embellishments on the front pockets and back, as well as the exquisite rhinestone logo featuring a horse’s head on the left sleeve, underscore the jacket’s exquisite quality. Equipped with a secure zipper beneath three elegant buttons and a stretchy lining, it allows for full freedom of movement and is perfect for precise dressage tests or exciting show jumping competitions. The ES-Lucia is not only practical but also your reliable partner for a winning performance. It offers UV50+ protection and low-maintenance luxury.

Breathable Airflow technology keeps you cool and ensures comfort.
A sophisticated, feminine cut accented with exquisite artwork.
Stretchable inner lining for maximum freedom of movement.
