Strengel Powder is a carefully formulated herbal blend for horses that can be used as a dietary supplement to support respiratory health. The formula combines selected herbs into a fine powder designed to provide gentle, balanced support for coughs, thick mucus, and asthmatic symptoms.

The focus is on a combination of soothing, antispasmodic, and expectorant properties. As a result, the product can serve as a natural addition to the daily diet when targeted support for respiratory function is needed. The powdered consistency makes it easy to administer daily with feed.

- Herbal blend for horses as a dietary supplement
- Respiratory support as part of the feeding regimen
- Gently soothing, antispasmodic, and expectorant properties
